HTC CORPORATION’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO INNOVATION SCIENCE, LLC’S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT THAT IT OWNS THE PATENTS-IN-SUIT AND HAS THE RIGHT TO SUE (4:18-CV-476, D.I. 65)

HTC Corporation (“HTC”) respectfully files this unopposed request for an extension of one week to respond to Innovation Sciences, LLC’s Motion for Summary Judgment that it Owns the Patents-in-Suit and Has the Right to Sue (“Motion”). D.I. 65.

Innovation Sciences, LLC (“Innovation”) has advised that it does not oppose HTC’s request. HTC’s current deadline to respond is June 10, 2020. The requested one week extension will shift the deadline to June 17, 2020.

Good cause exists to grant HTC’s request. First, Innovation’s Motion includes a sworn declaration from its principal Dr. Anne Wong in support of certain arguments and HTC has requested Dr. Wong sit for deposition so she may be examined regarding the statements made and evidence identified in her declaration. The additional time will allow Innovation to make her available for deposition and for her testimony to be considered and submitted in HTC's response. Second, as this Court is aware, Innovation and HTC are presently involved in an investigation brought by Innovation in the International Trade Commission which included several intervening pre-hearing deadlines since Innovation filed its Motion. The additional time will allow HTC sufficient time to fully respond to Innovation's Motion.

Accordingly, HTC respectfully requests a one-week extension of time to file its responsive brief up to and including June 17, 2020.
